We extend a warm welcome on board the Schooner J. & E. Riggin.

Why sail with us?

- ▶ The Riggin is owner operated. We are a husband and wife team.
- ▶ We have been featured in national publications including Traditional Home, the Boston Globe, Chicago Sun Times, Dallas Morning News, Washington Post, Family Circle, Women's Day, Smithsonian, Yankee Magazine, and have appeared on the Today Show, American Public Television/PBS, Animal Planet, and NECN.
- ▶ We are a non-smoking vessel.
- ▶ Justin & Jocelyn both have 100-ton licenses and have sailed the full length of the East Coast and Caribbean.
- ▶ Our chef, Mark Godfrey has learned under some of the top farm to table chef's in the U.S.
- ▶ We provide our guests with fresh local ingredients from the food we serve to the handmade soaps in the cabins.
- ▶ The Riggin was built in 1927 and is a National Historic Landmark so you'll be sailing on a piece of our American History.
- ▶ The Riggin is 90' on deck, 120' overall, and 23' wide with a large galley so there is plenty of space for everyone.
- ▶ We have been given the Environmental Leadership in Hospitality award by the State of Maine – the first, and only, windjammer to be given the honor.

Charters & Special Trips

While we feel that every trip is special on the J. & E. Riggin, we offer some with a special focus.

Charters

Schedule a charter for your family, school, class reunion, professional retreat, team building workshop, Boy/Girl Scout expedition, writer's workshop, birthday, anniversary, wedding celebration, or vow renewals. Our charters are customizable to your needs and can include a theme such as wellness, knitting, photography, lighthouses, astronomy, music, or cooking.

Maine Lighthouses & Lobsters™

We've taken three iconic images of Maine – windjammers, lighthouses & lobsters – and combined them into a unique vacation experience.

Craft & Sail Trips

Join in on one of three Maine Knitting Cruises with instructors Mim Bird, Bill Huntington, or Margaret Radcliffe. Knitting and Rug Hooking retreats are also available.

Maine Windjammer Fleet Events

Join us for the following fleet events where we will have an opportunity to "raft up" with other Maine Windjammers. Most of the vessels participate in: Windjammer Rendezvous, Schooner Race, Camden Windjammer Days, and Wooden Boat Week.
